OVERVIEW

There has been a tremendous increase of earth observation (EO) applications stemming from recent developments in advanced remote sensing technologies. This workshop is aimed at providing a forum for IEEE Geoscience & Remote Sensing (GRSS) members to share knowledge and experience on recent developments and advancements in geosciences and remote sensing technologies, particularly in the context of EO, disaster monitoring and risk assessment.

REGISTRATION FEES

Participant	Payment Before 01 Oct 2014	Payment After 01 Oct 2014
Regular	RM 100	RM 200
Student	RM 50	RM 100
